ABOUT SYNERGI:

Synergi is a tax credit consulting firm founded and run by experienced professionals.

Our trusted team operates throughout the United States and Puerto Rico using an innovative process that lets us get to know you and your company. We work with outside counsel and members of Congress to ensure that our methods are aligned with the legislation. We believe in our clients and in our work. And we offer peace of mind to our clients by providing audit support.

Your specific facts and circumstances matter. They are carefully taken into consideration, and our team uses them to identify whether any credits may be available to your business.
